What the Leaders of Democracy Say.

THE UTMOST CONFIDENCE EVERYWHERE.

New York Claimed for the Democracy by John Kelly.

WHO ESTIMATES A MAJORITY OF 60,000.

Encouraging Returns From all Other Doubtful States.

CONNECTICUT'S MAJORITY PLACED AT 6,000.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS MAY EXPECT TO HEAR.

A Glorious Victory Over Corruption's Candidate Promised.

The Constitution prints this morning dispatches from the doubtful states.

These dispatches are from the highest authority in the several states. They are from men who are on the ground, with every facility for obtaining information. In most cases they give the official figures, ascertained by detailed canvass.

The drift of these dispatches is highly encouraging. They assure us of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. They declare Indiana safe from but the most desperate methods. They disclose an interesting state of things in Michigan, Illinois, Massachusetts and Ohio.

Representing the best democratic opinion, based on official local information, they justify the highest hopes of democratic success.

THE GENERAL OUTLOOK BRIGHT. NEW YORK, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

The committee awaits the result of Tuesday's election with perfect confidence.

A. P. GORMAN, Chairman National Democratic Committee.

JOHN KELLY'S ESTIMATE.

NEW YORK, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

Cleveland's majority in New York will be not less than 60,000. JOHN KELLY.

NEW YORK SAFE FOR DEMOCRACY. NEW YORK November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

St. John's vote will be larger than Butler's. Cleveland's plurality over Blaine will be assured. This is assured. Idle to speculate in surmises. JOSEPH PULITZER, Editor of the World.

AT HEADQUARTERS. NEW YORK, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

Governor Hendricks telegraphs to private parties here that the democrats are sure to carry Indiana.

Senator Jonas, of the national committee, says he is confident of success.

While the national committee is not making estimates, they expect an overwhelming victory.

Republican headquarters to-day received news that they would capture Louisiana and Florida.

John Kelly, after receiving reports of Tammany's committee on organization, said "Cleveland would carry New York by sixty thousand majority."

It is believed here that Tammany is solid for Cleveland, and it is feared that Irving Hall and the county democracy are triggering with the republicans for help for their city. Tammany only parades to-night.

CONNECTICUT WILL BE IN LINE. NEW Haven, Conn. November 1st, 1884.

To The Constitution—

Connecticut is safe for Cleveland and Hendricks by 5,000 majority.

JAMES GALLAGHER, Chairman State Democratic Committee.

GOV. WALLER CONFIDENT. HARTFORD, Conn. November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

The cotton crops in Banks county are turning out better than was anticipated.

T. G. WALLER. Governor of Connecticut.

necticut will certainly reach 3,000 and may go considerably higher.

T. H. RUSSELL. Sec'y Independent Republican Cen. Com. THE REGISTER'S ESTIMATE. NEW HAVEN, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

From a careful review of the campaign in Connecticut, and reports from every part of the state, we think that Cleveland will carry this state by at least six thousand majority, and that Waller will be elected governor by a plurality of twenty-five hundred.

INDIANA WILL STAND BY HENDRICKS. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

The committee's estimate shows that 48,000 votes will probably be polled. Of these the democrats have a safe majority of over 11,000 votes. The state is ablaze with enthusiasm and the spirit of democracy, is irresistible.

E. B. HENDERSON. Chairman State Democratic Committee.

INDIANA NOT TO BE BOUGHT. LAPORE, Ind., November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

Two weeks ago the election here was a matter of finance. The democrats have pushed beyond that point, and have the state safe. Proper steps have been taken to prevent the Oliver Chilled Plow works and Studebaker wagon works bulldozing their 6,000 employees this year, as formerly. This means a democratic gain of 2,000 votes.

EDWARD HARKINS. Member State Democratic Committee.

SENATOR VOORHEES CONFIDENT. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

I do not have a doubt that Indiana will record her vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

D. W. VOORHEES, United States Senator.

EVEN CHANCES IN MICHIGAN. FLINT, MICHIGAN, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

I think Michigan will give the democratic state and national ticket her vote by from five to ten thousand majority.

JEROME EDDY, Chairman State Democratic Committee.

ILLINOIS HAS 17,000 INDEPENDENT REPUBLICANS. CHICAGO, Illinois, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

The democratic committee claims the state for Harrison and Cleveland. Secretary Lowell, of the independent republican committee, reports 17,000 anti-Blaine republicans already listed and the work going on rapidly. The fight is aggressive all along the line.

THE TIMES.

OHIO KEEPING THE REPUBLICANS BUSY. CINCINNATI, Ohio, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

As for us to-morrow, The Constitution is anxious to accommodate as many of its friends as can get into the building. The members of the legislature are especially invited guests together with a number of distinguished men from cities outside of Atlanta. The committee has been appointed to take charge of matters for that night is intended simply to see that these special guests have good seats and are hospitably and taken care of.

The republicans are desperately alarmed to-night by the report that the canvas of the democrats just closed show a plurality of 6,800 for Cleveland. The decision of the democratic judges on the Scott Liquor law will increase the democratic German voters. Chairman Barger telegraphs to-night that the democrats are in perfect organization and spirits, and the returns of their canvass disclose unexpected gains.

C. H. L.

SHORT AND SWEET FROM NEW JERSEY. NEW YORK, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

New Jersey will give Cleveland and Hendricks a decisive majority.

R. BLODGETT, Chairman New Jersey Dem. State Com.

THE WELKIN RINGS With the Cheers of Independent Republicans for Cleveland. BOSTON, November 1, 1884.

To The Constitution—

National Committee of Republican and Independents, Headquarters 25 Nassau Street, New York, November 1.—To the Country.—This nation won its independence under Washington, and its freedom under Lincoln. It is now to stand for liberty, without which liberty cannot exist. The republican party asks us to put James B. Blaine in the chair of the government.

The republicans are desperately alarmed to-night by the report that the canvas of the democrats just closed show a plurality of 6,800 for Cleveland. COMBINATIONS

BY WHICH CLEVELAND CAN WIN THE RACE.

He Has Eleven Chances With New York, While Blaine Has Two Without Interview With Garrison on the Scott Law Decision
—The National Ticket Betrayed.

The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes the following special from Washington:

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1.—If the democrats carry the electoral vote of New York for Cleveland, as they claim they will, the election on Tuesday next is liable to be so close as to be exceedingly interesting. With New York's electoral vote and the solid south, Cleveland has 189 votes to start with, and to add to his strength in his election sweep. From the point of observation there are no data given why the democrats feel so confident that New York will be democratic; but that they are confident is apparent because the many have placed that such will be the result.

Conceding the democratic claim to be correct, Cleveland has a variety of combinations through which the twelve additional states can be won to his side. To begin: Cleveland, with the vote of the south and New York, aggregating 189, could be elected with Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin, three more than necessary. Or with the following variety of combinations, none of which seem to be entirely improbable:

The South.....	153
New York.....	36
New Jersey.....	9
Connecticut.....	6
Total.....	204

This aggregates 201 votes, three more than are Or take:

This is five more than enough. Or:

Michigan.....	6
Connecticut.....	6

This combination would give the exact number required for an election.

If Michigan had voted the fusion ticket, it has a good chance of success. In such event Cleveland would have six of the electoral votes and Butler seven, thus this combination:

Almost a Miracle!

A REMARKABLE STORY.

A few days ago a gentleman of high standing in Atlanta met Dr. J. Bradford on the street, and requested the following, in which all ladies are deeply interested:

For the past eighteen months my wife has been an invalid, caused from womb trouble, and have had several of the best physicians attending her, and still she continues to decline. I have spent a hundred and sixty-three dollars. Instead of improving, getting any well, she gradually grew worse, and I had an idea it was hopeless.

I have consulted an international doctor, a friend of mine who knew of the case, and he said it would cure them.

We claim, and can prove beyond a Doubt

By the best and most undoubted testimony:

That the Remedy will cure all womb troubles.

That this Remedy will cure leucorrhea or white.

That this Remedy will restore the menstrual fun-tions.

That this Remedy will stop excessive menses.

That this Remedy will relieve painful menstruation.

That this Remedy will build up the system at tonic.

That this Remedy will cure all female disorders

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY.
ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION is published every day, except Monday, and is delivered by carrier in the city, or mailed postage free at $1 per month, $1.50 for three months, or $10 a year.

THE CONSTITUTION is for sale on all trains leading out of Atlanta, as at noon stands in the principal southern cities.

ADVERTISING RATES depend on location in the paper, and will be furnished on application.

CORRESPONDENCE containing important news selected from all parts of the country.

ADDRESS all letters and telegrams, and make all drafts or checks payable to

THE CONSTITUTION,
Atlanta, Georgia.

To The Public

To-morrow morning, November 3d, we shall begin the publication of

A MONDAY MORNING ISSUE of The Constitution.

From that time forward we shall continue to issue The Constitution seven days in the week and every day in the year.

While all existing contracts with subscribers call for six papers in the week, we shall send the seven days papers to every daily subscriber. The price for the daily—every day in the year—will remain at $10.

As the bulk of our advertising is contracted to appear only six days in the week, it will not appear in Monday's issue. This will give us much more room for news matter than is available any other day in the week, and will enable us to make the Monday's issue

THE FULLEST AND BEST PAPER of the week. To-morrow's issue will be especially interesting, because of the mass of political news, estimates and gossip it will contain.

Advertisers interested in Monday's issue should send their copy to us in Saturday afternoon.

ADVERTISERS WILL FIND

the Monday's issue especially advantageous. Having but few advertisements, every advertiser can secure a good position. Issued in a territory in which there is no other Monday paper, its circulation will be very large. Advertisers interested in Monday should be sent in on Saturday afternoon.

ATLANTA, NOVEMBER 2, 1884

NOTES FOR the South Atlantic states at 1 a. m.: fair weather; slight variable winds; slight changes in temperature.

SIXTEEN PERSONS were killed during a panic in a Glasgow theater last night. The panic was caused by a false alarm of fire raised by a discharged employee, who hoped thus to gain revenge.

"RUM, ROMANIAN and REBELLION" are preparing to be embarrassing to Mr. Blaine, as they are alliterative. It takes a smart man that Mr. Blaine to be on all sides of a question at once without stirring up somebody.

GENERAL PARSONS, of Maryland, challenges Blaine and Butler to allow certain checks which were intended to pay Butler for his campaign, to be examined. He proves that Butler received a regular weekly allowance from the republican committee.

The independent republican national committee has issued a stirring address, in which the enormity of permitting such a man as Blaine to reach the seat of Washington is held up to the people. Cleveland they endorse as one whose honesty and integrity would honor the office.

The little touch of French blood and the recklessness of drunken negroes are enough at any time to raise a riot in Louisiana. The troubles in New Iberia are but a continuation of a feeling which has too long held sway in the parishes of Louisiana. Ten victims in one political gathering should suffice for the present.

THE CONSTITUTION presents this morning a series of comprehensive but luminous telegrams from all parts of the country on the pending contest. The information they convey is as authentic as such information can be, as it comes from those who from their positions of public trust or party leadership should be looked to as the highest authorities on this important question.

No southern journal has ever presented as direct and significant a review of a campaign so remarkable as does THE CONSTITUTION of this morning.

To-morrow's (Monday's) CONSTITUTION will contain a continuation of such matter, gathered from throughout the country, all of which will be most interesting reading, particularly as it appears on the day before the national election. In fact, the readers of THE CONSTITUTION will know whatever is to be known concerning this all-absorbing and highly important event.

EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR.

As will be seen by an announcement elsewhere, we will begin to-morrow morning the publication of a Monday edition of THE CONSTITUTION.

We have intended taking this step for some time. For several years we have realized that THE CONSTITUTION was a daily paper simply by courtesy, and that not until it was issued every day in the year would it meet the demands of its constituency or the purposes of its publishers. We have therefore refrained from putting it on this basis, simply because we dared not undertake with inefficient equipment what requires the fullest and completest effort. Having secured this, and got it in good running shape, a Monday morning CONSTITUTION appears, as a matter of course.

This step closes the last gap between THE CONSTITUTION and metropolitan journalism. It makes possible many things that have been heretofore impossible.

It enables us to give our whole unbroken record of events materially enlarges our capacity. Besides improving every issue of THE CONSTITUTION, it takes up the dropped stitch in the warp of news and gossip that we weave week by week.

This seventh paper each week we furnish to our subscribers without extra charge. We do this in spite of the fact that we have contracted to give them six papers, and that under this contract our subscription lists have steadily and rapidly increased. We have found it sound policy, as it has certainly been a pleasure, to more than fulfill all promises we make to the public, and regardless of the lack of competition, to print just such a paper as we would print if urged by the most enterprising opposition. The heavy expense at which our Monday paper will be printed, without compensating income, will be cheerfully met if our readers will accept it as another evidence of our determination to deal more than liberally with them, and to make THE CONSTITUTION the best newspaper in the southern states.

OUR ESTIMATE FOR TUESDAY.

We see no reason to revise this morning the estimates THE CONSTITUTION has made as to the vote of the doubtful states during the past two weeks. It may be well, however, to summarize our opinion and estimate.

There are 401 votes in the electoral college. Either candidate, to carry the country, must secure 201 of these votes. It is our opinion that Governor Cleveland will be elected, and we propose to show the reason for the faith that is in us.

It is agreed on all sides that he will get every southern electoral vote. This gives him a nucleus of 153 votes that may be classed as certain.

To these we add the 36 votes of New York. The tremendous strength developed by the bolting republicans—ranging from 65,000 to 90,000 votes, leaves little doubt as to the vote of this state. The Tammany defection, with which the republicans hope to offset the break in their own ranks, has dwindled to less than 15,000 votes. It is asserted in the highest quarters that the republicans have practically lost hope of New York and transferred their fight to other states. It is with confidence therefore that we add the 36 votes of New York to Cleveland's 153 southern votes, giving him 189 votes.

The straightest road to success from this point is through Indiana. If the democrats can add the 15 votes of this state to the 180 votes of New York and the south, they will have 204 votes, or three more than is necessary.

Governor Hendricks has never failed to carry Indiana when he made the fight. He has never fought so brilliantly or so grandly as he is fighting now. When he ran with Tilden he carried the state by 5,515 majority. In 1880, when his friends thought he had been unjustly put aside, Garfield carried the state by 6,641 majority. He went in each time on the ground floor, through the convenience of the rascals he dealt with. So notorious did his railroad operations become that congress was induced to investigate them in 1876. So acceptable and popular was he among the members of the third house that a silver pitcher was given him by Sam Ward, king of the lobby. He dealt in whisky before the whiskey ring exposures; he opposed at the instance of Jay Gould the Thurman funding act, and he began an intricate, while secretary of state, in favor of a great guano deal in Peru and Chili. In all the notorious rotteness of the past twenty years, James G. Blaine had almost invariably a hand.

His record in congress is very far from good. As speaker of the house he appointed an anti-civil-service-reform committee. In the case he defended the timber thieves; he championed Jay Gould, and later on he formulated a scheme to distribute the surplus revenue among the states. As a fitting close to his dishonorable, selfish and crooked career, he dodged the vote on the prohibition amendment in the last election of his state.

And yet this tainted and tattooed man—this man who is confronted with unfreighted accusation as to every important event of his life, is to-day a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people. No other party would bring such a man before the people; but happily for us all that party has gone this time too far, and the verdict of an indignant people will be heard next Tuesday in volume, let us hope, sufficient to bring back some of the purity and wisdom and strength of the days when the people were supreme and the monopolists and jobbers and tricklers were kept in the background.

The continuation of Mr. Harris's story, "At Tegu's Petoe's," will appear in to-morrow's CONSTITUTION. It was unavoidably crowded from this morning's issue.

THE NUMBER of the Atlanta Medical and Surgical Journal, edited by Drs. W. F. Westmoreland, H. V. M. Miller and James A. Gray, is decidedly the most attractive we have ever seen, both in typographical appearance and character of contents. Besides other interesting matter we note as specially interesting, an article by Dr. J. H. Ligon on chemistry and therapeutics; reports from the Macon medical society; letters in defense of Dr. William A. Hammond, editor of the New York Medical and Biological Journal, with a portrait of Dr. Robert Battie of Rome.

The editors and publishers are to be congratulated upon the success of the Journal, and we wish for them the liberal patronage the Journal deserves.

MAINE should be looked after by the republicans. The recent majority in that state is by no means up to the notch.

THE CYCLE is in evolution, consequently the system is safe.

What Gould wants is practical control of the United States supreme court. He is not satisfied with one judge.

THE CHATHAM ARTILLERY.

During the first week in December next, the Chatham Artillery, of Savannah, one of the oldest military organizations in this country, will hold a fair for the benefit of their centennial fund.

The funds to be raised will be devoted to celebrating the centennial anniversary of the old corps.

There is not one of ours who has not been made familiar with the Chatham artillery as association or report. It is an organization that has linked its name with the history of the state, and while it continues to perform the functions of a military organization, it is in fact an institution, and has long been recognized as such. Its fame and the fame of its members is as intimately connected with the social and political as with the military history of the state.

Therefore the centennial celebration of the corps is a state event, and we should be glad to see it recognized as such. Speaking for ourselves, we have no hesitancy in saying that Atlanta is the interest of Atlanta, will contribute as largely to the celebration as any other section.

General and General Rosecrans, who conducts the democratic campaign, asserts that it is therefore to the success of the celebration.

As some of our readers may be disposed to give us credit for the statements of our correspondents, we call the direct probabilities of democratic success. It is no means exhausts their opportunities.

California voted for Hancock in 1880, and in 1882, it gave a democratic majority of 16,727, and secured 64 majority in the legislature, on the fullest vote ever polled. This looks as if were a thorough democratic state, and General Rosecrans, who conducts the democratic campaign, asserts that it is therefore to the success of the celebration.

SIXTEEN PEOPLE KILLED!

TROUBLE IN A THEATER CAUSED BY A FALSE ALARM OF FIRE.

ATLANTA, November 1.—The performances at the theater had proceeded without any intermission until shortly after 9 o'clock, when some uttered "fire". The whole audience instantly left their seats and made a rush to the several exits. The great mass of people who occupied the escaping therefrom, met the crowd that was descending the stairway from the gallery, and all block caused. Loud cries of distress and terror were heard from the mass of panic-stricken human beings. The alarm was given by the officers of the theater and by those who held back, but the warnings and appeals to the outer audience could not reach them, nor each other until they reached the street.

SIXTEEN FOUND DEAD.

In the theater was finally cleared sixteen persons were found on the stairs leading from the main and two others were so badly injured that they could give evidence that life was not lost by their own hands. The first alarm bell rang through the whole fire brigade quickly went to work, and with the police did their utmost to keep the fire to a minimum. The victims were the late to be effective in saving the lives of the victims. The fire force, aided by volunteers, rushed into the building to keep the entry of the crowd so large that they were crowded with in their human bodies.

BANKS REDUCING THEIR RATES.

ATLANTA, November 1.—The Fourth national bank issued a notice to its correspondents of the rate of interest on balances after October 1st, one per cent on $5,000 and upwards, after rates for money can be obtained, as a reduction of lower rates. At present, many interest paying banks are contemplating a reduction, but are not going to take a decision until after the clearing house meeting at which it is proposed to act as a body.

THE DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

ATLANTA, November 1.—The friends and adherents of the Democratic Party.

A slight enthusiasm of democrats was in the superior contortion. Report of the meeting that the meeting was gotten upon show and on a bad night for any gathering, the room was filled rapidly. At 8 o'clock Captain Hildebrand called the meeting to order and a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, and the time to the hour just before the meeting began.

When every heart beats with deep interest in the result. He paid tribute to the eloquence who had consented to address the meeting.

Mr. Cox was received with enthusiasm, and an exceedingly beautiful patriotic and enthusiastic speech was delivered, and the audience took the sentence in the highest state of enthusiasm.

Without indulging in abuse or neglecting opportunity, he argued the resumption of his party's policy which had been adopted.

He stated that the democratic party was up in the south of the conservative element, and that the party was in the north of their personal preferences and united for getting of good government and intelligent representation of the people and government service and vice. He said that compared with the rest of the country, the most that has been delivered in Georgia in a Musical Next Monday Night.

The musical Monday night at the residence of Mrs. Poe will be a delight to all lovers of the fine art. A rare treat will be given to the audience of the finest artists of the south. Miss Eva Coker, who has charmed every one by her beauty, grace, thorough education and charming singing, will grace the occasion with some bewitching songs. Professor J. H. Doutherty, the distinguished violinist, has recently come from Germany, and will give us some of the conceptions of the world's most renowned masters. Professor J. H. Doutherty, who has been giving his time to the study of the piano, so as to even touch the strings of the human heart fitfully, is to be present, and those who come will fully realize that he is a master of his art.

That our public schools should have circulating libraries is a matter of great importance which we feel all thinking people will assent to.

In the second grade of the first street school may be seen a little collection of books, the gift of generous friends, which, for several months has afforded infinite delight to many children. Could the thoughtful donors witness the pleasure these volumes have given, they would be induced to contribute no further. The teachers and pupils of the school wish to add to this collection such books as may be of value, and to extend

To this end an entertainment will be given at the open house, November 4th. The programs will be simple, but the price of admission, we hope that a generous public will appreciate the importance of this undertaking, and give them a crowded house.

Some Inducements Tree Guards That has Been Placed Around the Postoles.

A very proper idea, and one that is being given considerable attention, is the protection of trees in the public thoroughfare. The Constitution has frequently called attention to this, and it is a pleasure to note that many of the handsomest shade trees are being covered with iron guards.

Last week, the City works made some repairs to the office building. They are made of heavy wire, and are highly ornamented.

HEREDITARY SCRUPLES.

Dayville Place, Stamford, Conn., October 27, 1884.—The Swift Specific Co.—Gentlemen: On the eve of my departure for Europe I desire to publish a short article in your paper concerning a course of your specific method of treatment. Extreme weakness and general debility produced by exposure overwork, attendant upon a nervous temperament, were gradually developed into a nervous prostration of the system. Adopting the suggestions of intimate friends, who had experienced the relief for which I longed, I tried the plan, and to my surprise, I found myself restored to a perfect condition of health and strength.

Answers to your questions for your continued prosperity in your well chosen and successful method of relieving those who suffer.

Cancer and Polson Oak.

Tiptonville, Tenn., October 12, 1884.—I am bound to inform you that S. S. has cured my cancer, which was very bad. I am in fine health—not but that I have had a good deal of trouble. I have had a good deal of trouble with my neck and throat, and sometimes it was very bad. I have taken two bottles of water, which have given me until pain and suffering. I was treated with iodine of potash.

TRULY yours,

R. S. BRADFORD.

WE OFFER BARGAINS IN LADIES' HOSES, THREE PAIRS FOR $1.00, IN BLACK

John Ryan's new goods are arriving, his second stock this fall, bought the most advantageous prices. At time, the equal of which has never before been seen, never was business so dull in the east, and manufacturers wanting money so much. John Ryan taking advantage of all, dispatched his buyer with loads of cash; and his efforts have been crowned with success in the way of bargains. To-morrow the great variety in prices of dry goods, will commence at John Ryan's.

100 pieces Gros Grain silk, all new fall shades at 75c, worth $1.50. 85 pieces Beautiful Brocade silk, at 75c, former price $1.40. All washable shades.

55 pieces Rhadzme's silks, all shades at 93c, worth $1.60.

70 pieces cold satin Duchesse and Merveilleux at $1.25, the equal of any $2.75 silk sold in me south.

75 pieces extra heavy handsome Brocade two-toned silk, very wide, at 97c, usually sold at $2.

25 pieces Luceine silk, at 71c, regular price $1.25. No such bargains have ever before been seen in the United States.

5,000 remnants of silk, the entire accumulation of one of the largest drapery houses east, at 20c, 25c, 35c and 40c per yard worth fully double the price asked.

25 pieces handsome Moire silk in colors, former price $5 to $8, only $1.35. Here is a chance in black silks, the like of which is only seen once in a lifetime. This is no bombast, or humbuggery; the prices may seem ridiculously low, but John Ryan's word for it, you will find exactly what you see advertised.

22 pieces black gros grain silk at 45c, a big bargain.

34 pieces black gros grain silk at 88c. No such goods have ever been sold in Georgia like it at any time less than $1.25.

40 pieces black gros grain silk at 60c, that cannot be duplicated for less than $1.50.

50 pieces black gros grain silk at $1.10, same quality as we sold here 4 months ago at $1.75.

30 pieces black gros grain silk at $1.00, there is no silk at $2.50 elsewhere better. The above prices in silk will give you a little idea of how John Ryan is selling silks. Another drive that will astonish—500 pieces fancy figured dress goods, fall colors at 35 cents.

800 pieces indigo blue prints at 6 cents.

50 pieces ladies' cloth 53 in. wide at 50c per yard, worth fully $1.00. 5,000 yards red twilled flannel at 25 cents that can't be matched under 40c.

7,000 yards red twilled medicated flannel at 35 cents, worth 50c.

John Ryan has put the knife into prices and is cutting deep.

60 rolls of new carpets just received.

John Ryan will sell you carpets at retail as cheap as any merchant in Georgia can buy them wholesale, notice these prices.

85 pieces tapestry brussels at 60 cents.

100 pieces tapestry brussels at 65c.

80 pieces body brussels at 95 and $1.00.

John Ryan challenges the world to equal his prices. Here is a bonanza, don't miss it, nothing like it ever seen in Georgia.

6,000 yards of carpeting, all kinds and classes in remnants of 10 to 25 yards, the entire accumulation of "ends" of three of the largest Philadelphia mills—this season's goods, placed on John Ryan's Bargain counters at just about one-half the original cost. Don't fail to call and see these goods. Besides this, John Ryan has a full and compleat assortment of all kinds and grades of carpet in the regular stock that he sells on instalments. An inspection of this mammoth stock solicited.

THE UPPER FORCES.

DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON IN THE BROOKLYN TABERNACLE.

"The Lord Opened the Eyes of the Young Man and He Saw, and Behold the Mountain Was Full of Horses."

BROOKLYN, October 26.—[Special.]—Dr. Talmage continued his series of sermons on public affairs to-day in the Brooklyn tabernacle, choosing for his subject: "The Upper Forces." The opening hymn was:

"The morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears,
To penitential tears."

Before the sermon Dr. Talmage read and expounded passages of scripture appropriate to the subject to be presented. The text was II. Kings, vi. 17: "And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man and he saw; and behold the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha." Following is the sermon in full:

As it east England several regiments and 50,000 men a year to keep one troublesome captain at St. Helena, so the king of Samaria sent a great army to capture one minister of religion, perhaps 50,000, to take Elisha. During the night the troops drove in and surrounded the village of Dothan, where the prophet was staying. At daybreak the man-servant of Elisha rushes in crying, "What shall we do? An army is after you and we must die!" But Elisha was not scared, for he looked up to the mountains and saw that supernatural forces had gathered for his defense, and if there were 10,000 Assyrians against him, there were perhaps 100,000 angels for him. In answer to his prayer in behalf of the frightened man-servant, the young man saw them too—horses of tempest and drunkards are forced upon the public mind, and for the first time the question is raised whether a political contest, and probably who will be elected, and no one be allowed a vote who has offered a bribe or accepted a bribe for voting, whether the bribe be a free drink or a payment of cash, the suspicious cases be compelled to put hand on Bible and swear to their honesty, and so the sacred chest of the nation's safety.

God will also help us by an aroused moral sentiment. Morals and immorals have never been canvassed as now in any presidential campaign. Men who all their lives have been abiding from the public eye are denouncing the public eye.

SOCIAL GOSSIP.

THE FEATURES OF THE WEEK CHRONICLED.

Entertaining Our Company. The Movement of Our People Abroad—Marrying and Giving in Marriage—Topics of Interest to Our Lady Readers—Theatrical Masters, Etc.

Fashionable society during the past week has been very much like business—depressed, and there was but little festivity or gayety. There were a few very pleasant entertainments, highly enjoyed by those who attended them. Two or three quiet weddings came off. A number of our citizens, among them Governor McLane, attended the fair at Macon. There will be more life in the city the coming week—the excitement of the presidential election adding to it. Fresh oranges, turkey, cranberries, celery, sweet potatoes, apples and game in market are suggestive of several dinings to come off. Church concerts and oyster suppers are to come off. Monday evening a parlor entertainment will come off at Mrs. Poe's residence on the Boulevard, to be given by the ladies of St. Philip's church. A number of the friends of Ivy street public school will give an entertainment at the opera house Tuesday evening, consisting of tableaux, dramatic scenes, vocal and instrumental music, etc.

Ball and Banquet.

A grand ball and banquet has been arranged for to come in Dalton on the night of the 26th of December. There is no city where entertainments of such a character are more pleasantly arranged for than in Dalton. The entertainment Atlanta will be represented on the occasion.

Percival's Leon.

The season is over for the pure water, cool shade and the pleasant pavilion of Ponc de Leon. It already has an aspect of pathos, abandonment and dissolution. The trees no longer wear a bright halo, but are decked out with autumnal prophet's colors, and here and there, a fallen leaf breathes its moisture to the heart.

Masque Ball.

"Let thy master, lord and lady, Show of pride, and cheek of bloom, Pruned beauty, and flowing grace, Voice of song and waving grace."

Mrs. Grundy says that some of our prominent society people are contemplating a masque ball, to come off during the session of the legislature.

Any Particular Church?

"Julia" asks if there are any family obligations or personal prestige which would prevent a young lady from being advised to connect herself with.

No particular church is recommended. It is important, however, in all of the churches there are females, the friends of whose holy lives are gentle and self-denial, meekness and charity, and these plainly show at whose feet each one laid the offering of her heart.

Fires Comfortable.

During the past week we have comforted ourselves with the fires. The lights and shadows that played about the sitting room took the place of the more corporeal tints that so lately adorned the parlors. The fires were brightly lighted and the entertainments were decidedly cheered up by their grateful warmth and their social association. Last night when I went to the opera house, the fire had gone out, and did not burn again until the next morning. The heat was intense, and the mosquitoes were there, a fallen leaf breathes its moisture to the heart.

Ode They?

The question is asked if it really elaborate and expensive entertainments are desirable?

There is no desire to dispense any hospitality to welcome friends to handsome parlors and elegant tables. A cup of cold water offered with kindly affection is an generous host, and genial and cordial the entertainment. Others might be foolish and join the tide of God, which, since the time of Judah, and make the unwise mistake of confounding expense and show with sociability, and the result is that the house, unless the house is illuminated and crowded like a theatre and a huge table is spread with profusion, is far from popular with richness and display that will satisfy connoisseurs, balm sleep and美貌 to the heart.

Progressive Enclosure.

On the night of Tuesday, the 26th ult., Mrs. Livingston Mims entertained a number of her friends at a progressive evening party, given in honor of the presence in our city of Miss Mary Willey, of Galveston, Texas. Progressive enclosure is a game which has recently been introduced here and is destined to become a popular amusement. Many beautiful prizes were contested for, which caused great interest. Other contestants were brought to the evening, and the houses with ready tact and wit gave to all the assurance of welcome presence and the delight of intellectual conversation.

It is reported that she left the city for her home on Thursday. Her sweet, womanly grace, her bright repartee, her kind appreciation of whatever is good and true will be missed, and her return annually honored for by all who know her.

At the Altar.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.—From Spartanburg, S. C., Herald: On Sunday last quite a pleasing episode transpired in the chapel at Wellford, S. C., to Miss Helena Fearing was baptized and admitted to membership in the Methodist church. This was done before the services. After the sermon she was married to Mr. T. M. of Atlanta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Bagwell. The young people have our congratulations.

After the service, the bride and groom, the party headed the train in Palmetto, returning to Atlanta at 1:30 p. m.

The love and affection may be as beacon lights to guide the happy wedded couple smooth on life's pathway, is the wish of their friends.

Progressive Enclosure.

From Galveston, Texas, November 26th: At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Sted, near Palmetto, Ga., the Rev. Mr. Ryburn, of Fairburn, Georgia, performed the marriage of the late Rev. M. E. Sted, was married to Mr. F. H. Clark, of Atlanta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Bagwell. The young people have our congratulations.

Progressive Enclosure Parties.

From present indications it is evident that the novel Progressive Enclosure parties will enter largely into the style of entertainments in Atlanta this season. For its introduction into our city our society young people are indebted to one of its highly intelligent and popular members, Miss Sam. L. Johnson. She spent the summer at St. Paul and other cities in the northwest, where these are extremely fashionable. Several of several evenings since, with the assistance of Miss Anna Reid, who is so well known and deservedly popular here, the young people have decided to introduce the Progressive Enclosure here. The good taste and judgment of the party, perfecting every arrangement for the occasion was as apparent as the selection of guests to be invited. That the entire interest reflected pleasure and intense enthusiasm was manifested throughout the entire session.
